CHECK ON CONVICTIONS OR CAUTIONS

A check as to the existence and content of a criminal record may be requested from the Disclosure and Barring Services (DBS) after a person has been selected for appointment to this post. Refusal to agree to a check being made could disqualify you from being considered for the appointment. You are therefore asked to sign the statement below to confirm your agreement, if you are selected for the appointment, to a check being made on any criminal record applicable to you. Under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, you have the right not to disclose details of 'spent' convictions. However, for certain jobs, employers are allowed to ask about these offences. The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exception) (Amendment) Order 1986 sets out details of all jobs to which this applies and the job you have applied for is included in that list.

Please give details of ALL convictions, cautions, reprimands or warnings (whether spent or not).

Disclosure and Barring Services

The Disclosure and Barring Services (DBS), an executive agency of the Home Office, helps employers check records which were previously held by the police, the Department of Health and the Department for Education and Employment.

Different levels of disclosure can be provided, according to the type of work applied for.

The job for which you have applied will necessitate an Enhanced disclosure

STANDARD DISCLOSURE
